Installing our theme is extremely simple — just upload all the files to your server. In fact, you can test your theme locally on some browsers, like Safari, as well, except for the contact form functionality, which requires a server side language.

Chrome might give you some trouble because of AJAX calls, but you can always install a simple http server (http-server) to avoid that.